KEYWORDS

Also, systematic work was carried out to ensure human rights, strengthen the accountability and openness of state bodies, and increase the role of civil society institutions, mass media, and political activity of the population and public associations.

INTRODUCTION

In terms of reforming the national economy, effective measures have been taken to liberalize foreign trade, tax and financial policy, support entrepreneurship and guarantee the inviolability of private property, organize deep processing of agricultural products, and ensure rapid development of regions.

Enhancing the social protection of citizens and reducing poverty has been defined as a priority of the state policy, providing the population with new jobs and a guaranteed source of income, qualified medical and educational services, and decent living conditions has been raised to a new level in terms of quality.

As a result of the last five-year reforms, the necessary political-legal, socio-economic and scientific-educational foundations for the establishment of New Uzbekistan were created in our country.

In the following years, based on the principle of "For the dignity of man", after analyzing the complex processes of the world scale and the results of the development of our country, reforms aimed at further increasing the well-being of our people, transforming economic sectors and rapidly developing entrepreneurship, unconditionally ensuring human rights and interests, and forming an active civil society, in order to determine the priorities:

The development strategy of New Uzbekistan for 2022-2026, which consists of the following seven priority directions and the state program for its implementation in the "Year of Honoring Human Values and Active Neighborhoods", which was developed based on the principle of "From Action Strategy to Development Strategy" as a result of public discussion:

building a people-friendly state by increasing human dignity and further developing a free civil society;

making the principles of justice and the rule of law the most basic and necessary condition for development in our country;

rapid development of the national economy and ensuring high growth rates;

conducting a fair social policy, developing human capital;

ensuring spiritual development and bringing the industry to a new level;

approach universal problems based on national interests;

strengthening the security and defense potential of our country, conducting an open, pragmatic and active foreign policy.
